“ I had the great privilege of being Alice's roommate for 4 1/2 months. She was a delightful woman with a sharp sense of humor. She had an angelic face and innocent eyes, so when she responded with a witty remark, it was extra hilarious.

I sat with your mom all day on Monday. She didn't speak, but she did seem to sense that she was not alone. If I squeezed her hand, she would squeeze mine. I was with her as she drew her final breath. She passed peacefully.

I loved your mom as if she was my grandma. I will remember her and love her for as long as I live. It was a blessing to have known her.

Again, I am sending you my deepest sympathy.
