

Angela Sue McNeil-Smith

October 23, 1969 - August 16, 2007

Angie McNeil-Smith of Hudson, WI passed away on, August 16, 2007, in the accompaniment of her loving husband & daughter as well as immediate family in Illinois.

Angie battled Leiomyosarcoma (LMS), rare cancer, for four years and was known for her bravery and positive attitude given the obstacles she faced during her illness.

Angie was born October 23, 1969 in Murfreesboro, Tennessee to Sharon and Allan D. McNeil (who predeceased Angie in August 2006). Angie is the youngest of four children and is survived by her mother, Sharon, brothers, Mitch and Mike, her sister, Sharilyn (Tom) Holtman, and her nieces and nephews: Chelsea, Chase & Channing Holtman, Delaney and Jordan McNeil.

Angie was married on May 6, 2000 in Pennsylvania to Andrew Smith. In October 2001, Angie and Andrew were blessed with their daughter, Catherine Margaret (Maggie) Smith. Angie is survived by her beloved daughter Maggie and devoted husband Andrew of Hudson, WI.

Angie graduated with honors from Havana H.S in 1987 and continued her education at the University of Illinois where she graduated in 1991. Throughout her career Angie worked for Dow Chemical and Andersen

Corporation, which gave her the opportunity to live in a variety of states across the country.

Angie was interested in community theater, Junior Achievement advisor, traveling dance troupe participant and choreographer as well as avid sports fan loving NASCAR and the Illini.

A funeral service will be held for Angie at Hurley Funeral Home in Havana on Monday, August 20 at 11:00 a.m. by Rev. Danie deBeer. Visitation will be Sunday, August 19, 2007 from 5:00 until 7:00 p.m. also at the funeral home. Burial will be at the Laurel Hill Cemetery in Havana.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to The National Leiomyosarcoma (NLMSF) Foundation. Online memorial messages may be left for the family at www.hurleyfh.com.
