“ *My fondest memories are of our family reunions in Mason City when dad(Jr Clifford) was stationed state side. We never went to theme parks or Disneyland but home to see family.

“ Our sympathy for your loss. She was a good Christian woman and and a good friend to our family. What a blessing she has been for others. Our mother was a part of her cell prayer group. Also, there was a trip to Jersusalem. Prayers for peace and comfort to all of you. The McDaniel Family.

“ Mike, you have my sympathy. I didn't really know your mom very well, but knowing you, and all the nice things I've heard about your big family, she must have been a wonderful, remarkable lady who knew how to be a great Mom.

“ So, so sorry to hear of your loss. Your Mom... how can I say what I think of her? She always had a smile and quick laugh for me and my family. The last time I saw her I think was in O'Hare Airport when I was heading out for Florida I think. Once again, there was that quick smile... not missing a beat, we caught up on each other's lives. She always wanted to know how you really were... no cover up! I've missed her through the years, but am looking forward to seeing her and your Dad again one of these days!
