“ I am just now seeing this in 2021, but still want to extend my sympathy. She has special meaning for me, as she had me on her TV show in Springfield when TV was still relatively "new," so it is a vivid memory I will always have of her (photo from that attached--part of me is on the right).

“ She reminded me of my Grandmother McGee with her sense of style. She always welcomed us with a smile and her lovely manner. I liked listening to her talk about the farm and her life as a wife and mother. She just had such a way about her which made me always enjoy seeing her. She will be missed.
