“ I remember Miss Rich very well-- she was my teacher in Junior High School in the early 1960s, and also an adviser to our Theta Rho girls group. I remember Theta Rho girls going camping in southern Illinois, and she and Vauna Morris were with us, and there was a flat tire, and she knew how to change it. The girls were all so impressed! I remember we were all so excited when she told us she was going to marry Charles Prince, and we were so happy for her-- a real-life fairy tale! She was so happy, she glowed! I believe she moved to Havana then. Please accept my very sincere condolences. She was a lovely person and a positive influence in my life and in the lives of others. Very sincerely, Leslie Thiel Kessler, Bloomington, IL

“ Aunt Barbara was the most upright caring woman I have ever known. She loved everyone and wanted to help them the best way she knew how. She took the time for me whenever I needed it and her door was always open. My life is richer because of memories of her. She could speak her mind but she was usually right and she would always listen to you. She knew me better than anyone else other than my grandfather and I will truly miss her. It was good that she came to visit that last time. We got to spend some quality time. Thank you Cathy. We love you.
