

Bernard L. Hood

August 19, 1932 - September 9, 2014

Bernard L. Hood, 82, of Cuba, passed away at 6:18 p.m. on Tuesday, September 9, 2014 at Clayberg Nursing Home in Cuba. He was born August 19, 1932 in Cuba, IL to Donald L. and Violet Lucille (Lutz) Hood. He married Hazel Darlene Heffren on January 18, 1955 and she preceded him in death. He later married Sherry Lippert on June 26, 1982 in London Mills, IL. She preceded him in death on July 23, 2013.

Mr. Hood is survived by three sons, Eugene Hood of Lewistown, Ronnie (Velma) Hood of Cypress, FL, Rick (Donna) Hood of Cuba, IL, step-daughter, Tammy (David) Schnoor of Vernal, Utah, step-son Garrett Rodgers of Havana, six grandchildren, four step-grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Also surviving are one brother, Larry (Wilma) Hood of Havana and sister, Sharon (Jerry) Lilly of rural Cuba. He was preceded in death by his parents and wives.

Mr. Hood worked for Caterpillar Inc. for 31 years, retiring as a power truck operator. He served in the US Army during the Korean War.

Graveside services will be held at Laurel Hill Cemetery in Havana at a later date.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society or Clayberg Nursing Home.

Hurley Funeral Home in Havana is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Bernard L. Hood

---

October 12, 2022 at 03:07 PM