“ Aunt Beryle was always fun to be around and had a great sense of humor. Some of the best memories are when her and Aunt Wanda, Aunt Hilda and Aunt Faye were all together with my dad (Larry) in the mix. There was nothing quite like being a kid listening in on those conversations....always spirited, usually funny and sometimes a bit edgy. But all of that makes life a bit more colorful and God Bless Aunt Beryle for adding her color to all of our lives. I especially thank God for what she meant to and did for my Dad, especially when he was younger--many kind things that most will never know. God Bless you Aunt Beryle.--Wayne Bale

“ I remember well visiting Uncle Stanley and Aunt Beryle when they lived in Mason City. The meals she would make were always so good and she could bake a wonderful cake, too. This is just a small sample of some very happy memories. God bless Virginia, Joe, Kathy and all the family at this time.
