“ I had the pleasure of spending a couple hours a week with Miss Betty for her hair appointments for several years and I will always remember those times. She was incredibly funny, and you never knew what she might say! I remember one time I told her I might not be able to drive and pick her up for her hair appointment if it snowed a lot the night before and she said well honey if you don't wanna drive that's fine but I'll be walking there! She was going to get her hair done, blizzard or no blizzard! Rest in peace my friend! I'm sure you've got all your family and friends laughing up there already
