“ Billy is my baby brother and I remember when he was a toddler chasing us around biting everyone except Daddy on the back of the leg. He was level headed guy when he grew up .I loved him and his mom so much. At he can spend time with her now. Miss you, Billy

“ I met Bill when I arrived on board the USS Inflict on January of 1983. We immediately bonded started hanging out together aling other crew members. Have to say we did quite a bit of partying in Ocen view (Little Creek, Va). We created a page in Facebook a while back and starting keeping in touch with each other. Recalling old memories and great times on board and while on Liberty call. I was shocked and hurting when I heard about his passing. RIP. You will never be forgotten my good friend and Ship mate Billy Boy.
