“ This is such sad news. Carl was always so friendly. Whether it was a friendly wave, honk, or just a stop and see how everyone was doing I always enjoyed seeing him. I enjoyed talking about fishing on many occasions and attending the annual fish fry. Carl mowed my yard for me, without being asked, when we 1st moved to mason city. I barely knew him but I was so appreciative and glad that we knew such a great guy in a new town. Carl will be greatly missed. I wish I could have gotten more fishing tips from him and shared a few more laughs. Mel, Leah and I will be keeping you and your family in our prayers.

“ *I was up at the Carwash one day picking up and Carl came up to wash his vehicle, I said “hi Carl how you doin?” He said oh ok and went on to get his change, when he turned around he saw my name on my license plate and said “well hey Jill didn’t even recognize you how’d you recognize me? I said “oh your pretty unforgettable Carl”. He laughed and said “i don’t know if that’s a good thing or not” I said of course it is and he just laughed and said “well ok”.
