“ *I can still remember when Carmi told Bert - No puppy! She wanted one of our Scottish Terrier pups from Gypsy so bad and ignored Carmi and got one anyway!
It wasn't long after that to her approval that the pup became Carmi's best friend and was always found riding around with him in his truck! Needless to say after that one passed away Carmi had to have another Scotty in his life until Shirley said no more! For a while after that I let him take my Scotties for rides in his truck and play with them to give him what he needed without the full responsibility of caring for a dog full time.*
