

Chad L. Albert

August 12, 1971 - February 12, 2024

Chad L. Albert, 52, of Pleasant Plains, IL, passed away unexpectedly February 12, 2024.

Chad was born to Robert and Linda (nee Buerkett) Albert August 12, 1971, in Springfield, IL. He was a hard worker, driving semi to and from grain elevators and working with farmers during the harvest season. He was an avid Buffalo Bills fan, loved concerts, and was a diehard Slipknot fan. However, above all else, he was known for his dedication and deep love for his children, his family, and his friends. They meant the world to him, and he would have done anything for them.

Chad is survived by his children, Skylar and Corey Albert; his parents, Robert and Linda Albert; sister, Jennifer (Patrick) Horton; and several aunts, uncles, & cousins.

Chad was preceded in death by his grandparents, two aunts, and an uncle.

A Memorial Visitation will be held Saturday, February 17, 2024, from 9:00 a.m. until the time of Memorial Service at 11:00 a.m. at 122 W. Douglas Ave, Petersburg, IL 62675.

Suggested Memorial Donations could be made to Jennifer Horton for the lights of Chad's life, Skylar and Corey, for their future.

Hurley Funeral Home in Petersburg is in charge of arrangements.

“ Our family was so saddened to hear of Chad's passing. I remember so many hours working together at the elevator years ago, so many conversations, and so many lunches we shared when Greg stopped by the office to visit with us. You will be missed by so many people Chad! Rest in peace my friend. Say hey to Greg when you get up there!

“ Skylar, Corey, Linda, and Bob, I am so sad to hear about Chad's passing. He was such a good dad and was so quick to respond whenever I talked to him on the phone over the years with calls from the nurse's office. I just realized today while talking to my youngest sister Jenny on the phone that Chad was in her class at Plains. She said what a funny and nice guy he was. I am five years older, and when they were in first grade my class was book buddies with them. Sweet little Chad was my book buddy. I know his passing will leave a huge hole in your hearts, and I am so sorry for your loss. Sending hugs and prayers to all of you.
