

Charles "Terry" Wach

March 31, 1941 - September 13, 2022

Charles "Terry" Wach, 81, of Petersburg, IL passed away on Tuesday, September 13, 2022, at Sunny Acres Nursing Home.

Terry known to many as Trouble or Papa Do was born March 31, 1941, in Bloomington IL, the son of Charles "Chuck" and Karin (Shepard) Wach. He married Ruby Fern Dow in 1967 in Bloomington, Illinois.

Terry graduated from Bloomington High School and went on to proudly serve in the United States Airforce as a heavy vehicle operator where he received an Outstanding Unit Award. Terry also served in the Vietnam War. Prior to moving to Florida where he became a member of the Sebring Christian Church, Terry was a custodian for the Colfax School District for many years. In his spare time, you could find him hitting the greens at his favorite golf courses. Terry also enjoyed bowling and playing pool which, he was always very good at and would gladly challenge you to a game.

Terry is survived by his fiancé, Cheryl McKinley of Florida, his children, Karen Dooley of Petersburg, Stormy Wach of Petersburg, Bryan (Tamara) Wach of Springfield, Donald (Wendy) Chesscher of Alabama, Jim (Leslie) Chesscher of Texas, Mike Chesscher of Missouri, Kevin Baugh of Florida, and Terri Sue of Bloomington; one brother, Dennis Wach of Florida and many grandchildren and great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and his wife Ruby (Dow) Wach.

Cremation rites have been accorded and a Celebration of Life will be held at a later time. Memorials may be made to Sunny Acres Nursing Home,

Petersburg IL. Online condolences may be left for the family at www.hurleyfh.com
