“ Clark was a good man. He will be missed by many. I'm certain he is walking the streets of heaven with his mom and dad. Stopping for a milkshake and some fried shrimp and steak for dinner. Maybe going for an evening train ride.

“ In 1974 I helped Mrs. Lewis with Clark one day a week. We would put him in my car and we would go to the A&W Root Beer drive-in in Petersburg. Clark would get so excited when we arrived. He was so sweet and I always wondered what happened to him. My condolences to the entire Lewis family.
