Betty was born on March 8, 1937 in Chandlerville, IL, the daughter of Lloyd and Mary Aletha (Blair) Garner. Clint and Betty married on August 14, 1954 and recently celebrated 60 years of marriage.

They are survived by their children Rodney (Debbie) Ruppel, Rita (Greg) Noll, Roger (Holly) Ruppel, Robyn (Mark) Toland, and Rachel (Dr. Scott) Weber; grandchildren Jeremy (Melissa) Ruppel, Brock (Lindy) Ruppel, Chance (Lori) Ruppel, Travis (Brooke) Ruppel, Tayler Mae Ruppel, Adrienne (Dave) Topa, Erin (Bjorn) Berg, Ryan (Michelle) Noll, Alison "AJ" (Raymond) Horn, Eric Noll, Brett "Bar" Ruppel, Sophie, Carlie and Luke Toland, Liddy and Aaron Weber; great-grandchildren Caitlin, Tyler, Braylin Jean and Tobias Ruppel, Nathan and Madelyn Topa, Dane Berg; and siblings Kenny (Marty) Ruppel and Carol Newman.

Clint and Betty called Petersburg home for over fifty years. They farmed early in their marriage before Clint joined Union Local 477 from which he retired. Betty was a dedicated mother, and often provided childcare for families in the community. They were a team in every sense of the word and seldom seen apart from each other. Their greatest joy came from coaching, attending, and cheering for their children and grandchildren at activities. Together, they volunteered and worked for Petersburg baseball and softball associations for over forty years, ran the carousel and holiday trains at White Oaks Mall, enjoyed gardening, heading to the Riverboat for a date, and visiting with friends. They loved St. Louis Cardinals baseball and sharing the love of the game with their family.
