

Clinton C. Hollis

April 4, 1921 - October 4, 2012

Clinton C. Hollis, 91, of Rochester, Minnesota, formerly of Petersburg, Illinois, passed away October 4, 2012, at his residence at The Kahler Grand Hotel. He was born April 4, 1921, in Oakford, Illinois, to Edgar and Nettie Lounsberry Hollis. He married Joan Swan Hollis March 17, 1946, in Petersburg, Illinois.

He is survived by his wife, Joan, of 66 years; son, Dr. Kimm Hollis, of Madison, Indiana; four sisters: Marguerite Sutton of Peoria, Illinois; Mary Jane Smith of Petersburg, Illinois; Carla (Michael) Rebbe of Springfield, Illinois; and Joyce Ann Kellogg of Ottawa, Illinois; along with several nieces, nephews, and cousins. He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Kenneth.

Mr. Hollis was a United States Army World War II veteran having served in Iran for three years, was a fifty-year member of the Clinton Masonic Lodge #19 AF&FM, and is a member of Central United Presbyterian Church in Petersburg, Illinois. At Millikin University in Decatur, Illinois, the Joan and Clinton Hollis Rehearsal-Classroom in the university's school of music was named in his and his wife's honor.

Mr. Hollis was formerly employed in Petersburg, Illinois, at C.&I.M. Railroad, the Water Department, and Seiling-Mitchell, as well as Pontiac's General Motors Parts Division in Springfield, Illinois. During his twenty-five year career with General Motors, he was the recipient of many awards for his sales and service records.

There was no visitation. A private graveside service was held Saturday afternoon, October 6, at Rose Hill Cemetery in Petersburg, Illinois.

Memorial contributions can be made to Millikin University School of Music, %Office Of Development, 1184 West Main Street, Decatur, Illinois 62522 or through the funeral home.

Hurley Funeral Home, 122 West Douglas Street, Petersburg, Illinois 62675 was in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Clinton C. Hollis

October 12, 2022 at 03:07 PM