“ Rest in Peace Danny..!!

My wife Patt and I send our condolences to the family!!

We were cousins, but in addition to that, I considered Danny a good friend. We had seen very little of each other growing up. I am 4 yrs. older, and your family lived 100 miles away. My favorite story about Danny was, " I was a supervisor at Cat. on second shift in the Foundry. We regularly had new people start on Monday, and we would group them together and have an orientation meeting to explain what their jobs and responsibilities would be. I noticed this rather burly guy, and I thought that he looked like he would be a good worker. Beyond that he did look familiar, so I asked him his name. His eyes got big and he responded "Gordon," "Dan Gordon." I giggled and said "You're my cousin..!!" I was as dumbfounded as he was.

Our time working together went well, but that was when Cat. went through a lot of turmoil. I eventually was bumped back to my old job, and he was eventually laid off. After that, I would run into him here and there, but never saw much of him. I would say that Danny was a "real character" and I am thankful that we were able to reconnect during that time.
