“ My condolences are with you. He will be missed on our midshift crew in RAF Lakenheath. Phillips made a mark in all of us that we are never going to forget. He will be missed. Thank you for letting me to be part in your Air Force career. I always said that I will put my stripes for you and I was going to be with you till the end. You are on my prayers and I pray that God gives strength to Phillips Family. You may be gone, but you are never going to be Forgotten.
