David Bruce McFadden

1931 - 2007

David McFadden, was born January 8 1931 as Robert Eugene Waddell, and was adopted in infancy by his loving parents, Robert and Elsie McFadden, then of Havana Illinois. David grew up in Chicago, and attended Antioch college where he majored in music and was active in summer theater productions. He studied voice at Chicago Music College, and with private instructors. His great passion was for opera. He was stage manager of the Kungsholm Miniature Opera Theater in Chicago. Later he was founder and president of Type Techs graphics in Bolingbrook Illinois. He lived in Lisle, Illinois, and served on the board of the St. Joseph Creek Condo Association. He died August 29, 2007 in Naperville, Illinois.

He is survived by his former business partner, and long time friend Winford "Fred" Tackett, and by his sister Emily Jean McFadden of Holland Michigan. He will be missed by three nieces, Dr. Linda Reese, Karen Schaumann and Gail Schaumann Nelson, as well as by his nephew Robert Schaumann. He had 10 grand nieces and grand nephews.

Arrangements are being handled by Hurley Funeral Home of Havana Illinois.

There will be a graveside service at Laurel Hill Cemetery in Havana later in the fall.

Thanks are extended to Alden nursing home, Edwards hospital, and the Hines VA hospital for thoughtful care during his illness.
