“ I knew Debbie's mother from being her step-brother, back when she lived at 1208 N. Glendale. Whenever I got to spend time with my Dad, Betty, maybe 4 years older than me, and her Grandma Flaherty kept me entertained. I am happy to see, that, like her mother, Debbie had many, many friends who will remember her.

“ I had the honor of meeting Debbie in the last couple of years or so.
She was spunky. Clearly where her daughter, Gina, gets it from.
However, what really stood out most is her love for her family.
