

Delbert Sielschott

June 27, 2010

Delbert Adolph Sielschott, son of Adolph Raymond and Elinor Jean Rebecca (Barrett) Sielschott was born on 31 December 1938. Delbert left this this earthly life for life eternal at 6:04 p.m. on Sunday, June 27, 2010 in Crane Creek Twp, Mason County.

Delbert married Elsieann Mary Smith on 1 June 1964. To this union was born one son, Stuart Adolph Sielschott.

Survivors include his wife, Elsieann of Petersburg, one son Stuart Sielschott, grandson, Michael Adolph Sielschott, great-granddaughter, Sophia M. Sielschott, two sisters, Shirley (Lee) Shoemaker and Martha (Denny) Garren, both of Kilbourne and sister-in-law Joyce Sielschott of Chandlerville. He was preceded in death by his parents, brother, Kenneth, sisters, Betty Hendrix and Ruth Marilyn Sielschott.

He will be buried at Mt. Zion Cemetery near Kilbourne at a later date.

Delbert was a member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church. He had farmed and was part owner of W&S John Deere Dealership. He served the US Army as a private pilot.

Memorial contributions may be made to Mt. Zion Baptist Church. Online memorial messages may be left for the family at www.hurleyfh.com.

Hurley Funeral Home in Havana is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Delbert Sielschott

October 12, 2022 at 03:07 PM