

Donald Edward Poindexter

May 28, 2011

Donald Edward Poindexter, 83, of St. Petersburg, FL, passed away at Brookside Hospice House in Palm Harbor, FL at 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 28, 2011. He was born January 8, 1928 in Leroy, IL to JN and Bertha (Prier) Poindexter. He married Carla Huggins on August 3, 1974 in Madeira Beach, FL.

Mr. Poindexter is survived by his wife, Carla, of St. Petersburg, three daughters, Linda Poindexter of Oregon, Judy Johnston of Florida, Donna (Brian) Cline of Heyworth, IL, son, Don Poindexter of Leroy, IL, two step-daughters, Denice (Ed) Ray of Havana, Jamie Meyer of California, step-son Max Sprague of Florida, six grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and four great-great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, daughter, Sue, step son David Long and five brothers.

Mr. Poindexter served in the Army Air Corps. He worked as a butcher in Havana for many years and later at Publix in Florida, retiring in 1984. Graveside services will be held at Laurel Hill Cemetery in Havana at 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 2, 2011. Visitation will be held one hour prior to the services at the Hurley Funeral Home in Havana. Fr. Phillip Boeve will officiate.

Memorial contributions may be made to Sun Coast Hospice in Clearwater Florida or to the Alzheimer's Association. Online memorial messages may be left for the family at www.hurleyfh.com.

Hurley Funeral Home in Havana is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Donald Edward Poindexter

October 12, 2022 at 03:07 PM