I grew up with the Hinds family, a block over from their house. Spent a lot of time at their house! Donna was a very hard working person and loved her family and children and friends. She had a huge heart ❤️. My condolences go out to the family. She has gone to a better place! RIP prayers for this family 🙏🙏🙏

“ I met her when they moved to Tallula 69? It was great having a family that had grown up with my Dad. Billy and Her old and me and Bruce had years of great times together. Donna always called us honey and you knew she meant it. What a beautiful woman and a lovely dear soul
