“ Gosh, I can remember all the way back to my childhood and Donna was always around for all the performances Kim and I were part of. On the two different occasions I was a long-term sub at PORTA Central, she helped me in more ways that I could count. A grand lady for sure. Her sparkling eye, gracious smile and charismatic laugh will be long remembered. My deepest sympathy for all of you.

“ As a child and as a teen, it was always a pleasure to visit Kim at her home with Donna and Larry (and Jeff). They always provided a warm and comfortable atmosphere to be oneself. I will also remember Donna as our school secretary, someone who we could go to in grade school for our bumps and bruises. I am glad I knew her. Linda Eilks
