“ *Remembering many childhood memories of Donna and our families together camping, fishing, hunting Easter eggs, and the overnight New Year's Eve parties with my parents and us kids. Still remember her yummy desserts and candies and have the recipes and make them now and then and always think of her fondly. My deepest condolences Tim to you and your family. “ I have such fond memories of her in the school office whenever we needed a Tylenol or got to go run mimeograph copies for the teacher. I also have a recipe from my mom for a cheese ball that is still referred to as “Donna Morgan’s cheese ball” whenever it is served. Truly a wonderful person who touched many.

“ Quick story. In the 7th grade, my sister dropped me off at school before parking the car. In the process of getting out of car I somehow grabbed my sister's purse and marched right into school with it, down the hallway, in front of the whole world...without realizing what I had done. I suddenly had an epiphany and realized the HORRIFYING predicament I found myself in, purse strapped over shoulder. I RAN to the office, and there was Donna to soften the blow - with a whole lot of giggles. I handed over the purse and she found my sister so I didn't have to do the high school walk of shame as a junior high weiner. From that day on , whenever I saw her, she'd start giggling and so would I. She was the sweetest woman and such a soft place to land - and I will never ever forget her always smiling&welcoming face. Donna is what is RIGHT with the world. Thank you Donna and God bless you. Most sincere condolences to Tim and family!!
