

Edith L. "Edie" Lynn

February 4, 2013

Edith L. "Edie" Lynn of Springfield, IL born on February 23, 1939 died at St. John's Hospice of Springfield, IL at 8:55p.m. Monday, February 4, 2013. The daughter of Robert and Marie Hart Shults in Bath Township in Mason County, IL. She was raised in a foster home of Carl and Pauline Barndollar of Havana, IL. She married Kenneth Lynn on June 2, 1958 in Hannibal, Missouri and he survives.

Preceded her in death are her parents, one daughter Denise, four sisters and three brothers. Survivors include two daughters Teresa Lynn of Springfield, IL and Lisa (Neal) Shelabarger of Manito, two grandchildren Nathan Shelabarger of Bartonville and Jessie Shelabarger of Manito, IL, three sisters; Mary Ellen Smith, Patsy Williams, and LaVina Kruse all from Havana, IL, one brother Mackey Shults of Lincoln, IL. Several nieces and nephews.

Edie worked as a waitress, babysitter and home health aide and retired in 2000. She enjoyed gardening, fishing, bowling and her two pets Nikki and Indy.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Havana and the Illinois Humane Society. A 23 year Survivor of Cancer.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, February 8, 2013 at

Hurley Funeral Home in Mason City. Visitation will be from 5-7 Thursday night also at the funeral home. Burial will be in Mason City Cemetery. Memorial contributions can be made to Illinois Humane Society or to Relay for Life. Hurley Funeral Home in Mason City is assisting the family with the arrangements. Online memorial message for the family may be left at www.hurleyfh.com.

Cemetery Details

Mason City Cemetery

Mason City, IL 62664

Tribute Wall

“ Edith L. "Edie" Lynn

October 12, 2022 at 03:07 PM