

Enid Apken

June 28, 1920 - May 19, 2012

Enid Apken, age 91 of Petersburg died peacefully in her home May 19, 2012. She was born June 28, 1920 in Plainview, MN, the daughter of Elmer and Mabel Johnson (both deceased). She married Robert S. Apken of Petersburg, IL in 1944, he died in 1976. Enid is also preceded in death by her daughter, Barbara Ann Lykkebak in 1996.

Mrs. Apken was a graduate of Winona State University in Winona, MN. She taught several years in Minnesota before her marriage. She and her husband moved to Racine, WI and after ten years they moved to Petersburg, IL. She taught for 19 years in the PORTA school system.

She was a member of Central Presbyterian Church in Petersburg and served as choir director for many years. She was a member and past president of the Petersburg Woman's Club. After retiring from teaching in 1983, she worked part-time at the Petersburg Public Library.

Survivors are two granddaughters, Trish Ann Lykkebak and her son Zachary Robert Lykkebak of Petersburg, IL, and Kristen Elizabeth (Marshall) Foote and her two children Aiden Foote and Emry Foote of Carbondale, CO. She is also survived by several nieces and nephews. Enid was predeceased by her brothers Orland Johnson in 2010 and Howard Johnson in 1983.

The family would like to thank Memorial Home Services Hospice for the care they provided to Enid and her family.

A Memorial Service will be Tuesday, May 29, 2012 at 6:00 p.m. in the Central Presbyterian Church of Petersburg with the Rev. Leah Elrod officiating.

Visitation will be Tuesday May 29, 2012 from 5:00 p.m. until time of service in the church. Cremation rites have been accorded and a private family burial will be arranged in Oakland Cemetery, Petersburg, IL. Memorial donations may be made to the Central Presbyterian Church of Petersburg.

Hurley Funeral Home in Petersburg assisted the family.

Tribute Wall

“ Enid Apken

---

October 12, 2022 at 03:07 PM