

Esther Victoria Lindsay

September 25, 1916 - September 30, 2012

Esther Victoria (Larson) Lindsay, 96, of Havana, went home to be with her Lord, Sunday, September 30, 2012 at the Christian Village in Lincoln, IL. She was born September 25, 1916 on a farm near Havana, to Andrew and Harriet Ellen (Hendricker) Larson, Sr. She married Andrew John Lindsay on June 9, 1939 and he preceded her in death on February 10, 1996.

Mrs. Lindsay is survived by two daughters, Barbara (Dean) Cripe of Decatur, IL, Marilyn (Albert) List of Havana, four sons, Rod (Barbara) Lindsay of Wisconsin, Tim (Sandy) Lindsay of Havana, Stan (Linda) Lindsay of Florida, Dennis (Karen) Lindsay of Oregon, seventeen grandchildren, nineteen great-grandchildren with one more expected soon. Also surviving are three sisters, Lil Roberts of Havana, Dorothy Bryant of Tennessee, Thelma Stevenson of Ipava and one brother David Larson of Havana. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, three brothers and three sisters.

Esther was a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and sister. She loved spending time with family, quilting, and gardening. She was a great story teller to her kids and grandkids as well as to the residents of the nursing home in recent weeks. Esther was a great teacher, teaching in a one room school house as well as Sunday School at her church. She was a charter member of the Havana Church of Christ and a member of Mason County Home Bureau. She was a graduate with a teacher's certificate from Western Illinois University and taught in the Mason County school system. She also enjoyed gardening and quilting.

Funeral services will be held at the Havana Church of Christ at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, October 4, 2012 with visitation one hour prior to the services. Dr. Paul Boatman and Warren Hughes will officiate. Burial will follow the services at Laurel Hill Cemetery in Havana.

Memorial contributions may be made to The Christian Village in Lincoln. Online memorial messages may be left for the family at www.hurleyfh.com.

Hurley Funeral Home in Havana is in charge of arrangements.
