May God, wrap his arms around you and your family and hold you tight until the storm passes, there are no words that will make you feel better, just know you are in our hearts.

“ Rest in Peace Oni. You and the Holler family were always so kind and generous to the scrawny kid who lived in the house up the hill. My deepest sympathy to Oni's family and the Holler family.

“ Where do I start. Oni was a special person, filled with love for her children, family & friends. She loved to visit & no matter how long it went between our visits, whether one day apart or many days apart, we could spend the whole day sitting laughing together & sharing experiences & memories. I could always count on her to give me a different perspective to any situation, & she did not hesitate to "say it like it was" whether I liked it or not - but I always knew it was said out of caring, not out of a desire to hurt. I loved her much & counted her always as my sister-in-law, my friend. May your "real home" bring you peace & happiness, Oni, in His love & presence. May God bless you & keep you always, & bring peace & comfort to your loved ones in this time of sorrow.
