“ Evelyn was a very special person & a smile & greeting for all she met. I first knew her at a Monday night bowling league & how she could bowl! Later she became a member of the Church I attended, Central Christian Church in Havana & she has always been a faithful member every Sunday, greeting everyone with a smile. She worked very hard for "Her Church" & was proud of being a member of the Church. She will truly be missed by all her friends & the smile she had for everyone! Evelyn's faithful friend, Edna "Faye" Steele.
