

Floyd S. Jurgens

May 19, 1928 - November 26, 2020

God be praised as He welcomes Floyd S. Jurgens to his eternal home. May Floyd rest in the peace of Christ's mercy and the loving grace of God on Thanksgiving day, November 26, 2020. He was in the care of Sunny Acres Nursing Home. Floyd was born May 19, 1928 in Cass County, IL to John Herman and Eula B. Jurgens. He married Lois Stowell on January 31, 1954, who was called home on Sept 25, 2019, after 65 years of marriage.

Floyd is survived by daughter, Caron (Bruce) Klein, son, Gary (life partner Anita) Jurgens, 4 grandchildren: Jennifer E Jurgens, Caitlyn, Timothee & Chandler Klein, sisters-in-law Marilyn (Stowell) Miller and Barbara Stowell and several nieces & nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, and sisters: Elizabeth Foste, Alberta Balster, Louise Himmel, Marie Burrus and Ruth Dobbe.

Floyd was a life-long farmer in the Cass and Menard County areas. He graduated from Virginia High School, served in the U.S. Army, stationed at Panama Canal. Floyd was an active member of Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Petersburg, serving many years on the church board and choir. For many years he also served on church boards of Zion Lutheran, Newmansville and Salem Lutheran, Chandlerville, and regional Lutheran Laymen's League. He was a kind & patient leader starting two 4-H clubs: one in Circleville and a second club for Pontiac Pioneers (15+ years). Floyd was active on several boards including Cass County Mutual, Cass FS, Pres of Menard Farm Bureau, Cass 4-H Federation, Menard FS, and Pork Producers. He always loved getting together with his children, grandchildren, family and friends.

A private family funeral service will be held for Floyd. Burial will be in Oakland Cemetery. Memorials can be made to Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Petersburg.

Hurley Funeral Home in Petersburg, IL is assisting the family with arrangements.
