“ Grew up next door to Gary's family. When I started first grade, he rode his bicycle with me to school and introduced me to his friends, teachers, and yes, he knew the principal. Ray Quensel rode his bike some days and we would ride with him. Mr Quensel like to briskly walk on part of his ride. That was no fun and we would part ways. Gary rode back and forth with me for a couple of months. Later, I remember getting up before the sun to "terrorize" the streets as we delivered newspapers before school. He had so many customers that many times not all the papers would fit in the baskets and one of us carried the rest in a carrier bag. Sometimes on Sunday we would have to make two trips to get them all delivered. I remember we did some things (mostly innocent) we probably should have gotten in trouble for, but somehow he managed to keep me out of trouble. He is a part of my childhood memories. My deepest condolences to his family.

“ Gary we never got to go on that last car ride or eat lunch together and I wish we would have. Thank you for being there for me through many rough times when I grew up and giving me all the advice that you did. You was like a dad to me since mine was never around and I will miss you very much! You are a very special person with a big heart that cared for many people. Sending my thoughts and prayers to your whole family at this time. Until we meet again Papa!
