“ *What a blessing that Georgia's children have each other in this hour and Floyd has their enduring love and support. Our prayers and sympathy is here with you all. Georgia never failed to lend a helping hand and her patience at listening to a neighbor's woes provided comfort for many years. Many times she stepped in during an emergency to help with children, food or a strong shoulder to lean on . I was blessed to know her. Now she can take her place with the Saints. “ Sincere condolences to the Koke family. Georgia was always such an elegant lady, and passed that elegance on to her daughters.
