“ When I was about 5 years old, Uncle Olie taught me how to tie my shoe laces. In the summers I would visit with Patty and Olie for a week or so; one of the kids in Atterbery had a go-cart and we all lined up to get our chance to drive the go-cart down the street and back. Always had a good visit with Aunt Patty and Uncle Olie and and my cousins.. Debbie Garman (niece of Patty and Olie).
