“ RIP Jerry. I always enjoyed our visits. He made me laugh when he told me how he first got started. After he graduated from barber college, he said he went up and down the streets looking for a job until Jim McClain, a WWI vet who cut hair over across MacArthur street, gave him a chance. He said til then he "was just like a dog going down the street peeing on telephone poles." A hardcore Redbird fan if there ever was one.
