“ Brenda and all, just a quick note to let you know that we have you firmly in our prayers at this time of stress. It's always painful when we loose a loved one but keep in mind that they will live on in your hearts as long as there is one left who remembers...what a comforting thought. In sympathy, Kay and Graham Curtis

Glendora was a kind and loving neighbor lady to me as a child in the Jones School neighborhood. The first recipe I ever asked for was her Blonde Brownies. I think I was only 10 at the time. I have fond memories of going places with her and Elmer, Brenda and Ginger. Another of my beloved childhood neighbor ladies gone. Sad. My deepest sympathy to her family and love ones.
