“ My favorite memory of my father in law, Harold, was on my wedding day. He jokingly tried to convince Bob to leave before the wedding and offered him money to do so. It was all in good fun and we all got a good laugh out of it, that was typical Harold humor. Harold was loved by all of us and was especially blessed to have Nancy who loved him the most and who took such wonderful care of him, he was certainly spoiled by her. I was honored to call him my father in law, and grandfather to my children. Love you Harold, may you Rest In Peace.
