“ To the Reed an Cooper families, Ivis was as lucky to have you, as you were to have her. The sacrifices you made were such a blessing to her. We always thought of Ivis as part of our extended family of Maxfield boulevard. I have many good memories of her picking apples in our yard and visiting with her and Leonard. I additionally enjoyed all the neighborhood farm life stories Grandpa Harvey and Grandma Jane have told that included them over the years. Ivis was truly part of the greatest generation and she will be missed. Your family is in our thoughts and prayers.
