

Jack E. Russell

March 31, 1936 - November 26, 2019

Jack E. Russell, 83, of Havana passed away on Monday, November 26, 2019 at 4:35 p.m. at Havana Healthcare Center in Havana. He was born on March 31, 1936 in Mason County to John and Althea (Chapman) Russell. He married Betty Mitchell on August 24, 1968 in Cook County, Illinois.

Jack is survived by his wife, Betty, children: Christine Russell, Theresa Ayala, Jon Russell, and Troy Anderson, grandchildren: Christopher Russell, Nicholas Russell, and Epiphany Miller, and great-grandchildren: Symphony Lynn and Holden Russell. He is also survived by his brother Bill Russell and many other grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Jack served as a Ranger in the U.S. Army. He was a jack of all trades, working as a welder, a barber, and many other professions. He enjoyed fishing and was an avid duck and deer hunter.

Rest in peace Jack, you will be missed but never forgotten.

Cremation rites have been accorded and a burial of ashes will be held at a later date.

Memorial contributions can be made in Jack's name to VFW Post #6408.

Online condolences can be left for the family at www.hurleyfh.com.

Hurley Funeral Home in Havana is in charge of arrangements.

“ I've only known JACK about 2 years, we meet here (HHC). He took an instant like to me as I did him. We talked often, almost always having a fish fry. He was a good person and I'm glad we became friends, I only wish it was sooner and under different circumstances. I hope we meet again some day, until then RIP JACK RUSSELL my friend. 🐟

“ I remember when I was little and I'd go see my dad when he was working at the bar that use to be Glens Getaway. Jack ALWAYS bought me a Pepsi and a candy bar. Jack also showed me how he called ducks just using his hands. He was a good man and he was a true hero for serving our country. Rest easy my good friend.
