

Jack Steele

May 19, 1923 - October 5, 2019

Jack Steele, 96, of Havana, passed away on Saturday, October 5, 2019 at home surrounded by loved ones. Jack was born May 19, 1923, the 13th child and son of Mary and Mont Steele. He was preceded in death by his wife, Edna Faye of 74 years, parents, and twelve siblings.

He is survived by: son, Max of Minneapolis; daughters, Lynda of Watseka and Karen (Steve) of Minneapolis; six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Jack graduated from Havana High School, married his high school sweetheart, and joined the Marine Corps where he trained to be a bomber pilot during World War II and the Korean Conflict. He became a flight instructor stateside achieving the rank of Major. Jack was decorated with the American Defense Ribbon, Asiatic Pacific Ribbon, Victory Ribbon, Presidential Unit Citation, six Air Medals, and the distinguished Flying Cross.

Jack and his wife were business partners for over 50 years in the Du-Rite Laundry, Sycamore Motor Lodge, and various real estate. Jack was the initiator and risk taker, driven to follow the American dream of being an entrepreneur. He was a futurist, dreamer, problem solver, fixer of anything, and generous in helping others start their own businesses.

Jack was an animal lover. He would be willing to take in almost any stray and treated them with love and compassion.
