“ Larry, kids, grandkids - there are just too many to pick from. Like I mentioned, I changed her first diaper when she arrived home from the hospital; she was just 4 years older than my firstborn. We sure enjoyed sitting on the deck or in the garage - me in a lawn chair, her on the steps - while she smoked her cigarette; or when I would go over to spend the night so she wasn't alone when Larry worked late - me on one end of the couch, her on the other. So many, like the time she called me when I lived in Kansas City & talked for 5 hrs - you grounded her from the phone that time - LOL. I miss her so much & am so lonely just knowing she's not going to call, nor can I call her. Love you all & praying God's comfort for all of you in this time of sorrow. Hugs.
