“ Kim & family,

I was shocked to see your mom's name in the obituaries this week in the paper. I had no idea she was that ill. As noted here by all of the memories of your mom, she will truly be missed. She made me laugh from the time I met her at Dr. Lee's when I was working for Dr. Martin to the last day I saw her at the store. I will miss her "sense of humor" and her forthrightness for sure. She always told you what was on her mind. I will miss saying "Hey Jack" at County Market and miss waving at her in line at the Jr. High picking up her grandson as I drove the bus by the line of cars. (She was always first in line!) I will keep her in my prayers daily, and you as well.

*My sincere sympathy,

“ Jackie,
It was truly my pleasure and honor to have you as a co-worker and a friend. You were always full of spunk and outspoken and I loved and admired that about you! I miss seeing you and hearing "What's up kid?". Our lives will never be the same without you, but we all are better for having known you. You are sadly missed. To your family: I send my deepest sympathies. I pray that you find a peace, comfort and understanding. She will always be with you. Love ya Jacks!--
