“ Don List--was a person I knew--I am 84--his wife was a sister to Knobby Fink which I knew him growing up. Knobby was a boxer and a good one at that. The Lists were friends---I only have memories it has been so long ago.

“ Linda, Your mom was special! Your family took me in when my mom had polio. Not many would have done that. She always had a smile on her face. Sorry I did not realize she was still alive prior to this. Please accept my condolences. Bobbie McNeil

“ I never knew her first name was Jeanne! I always thought Mardelle had such a great smile that she shared often. I'm so sorry to hear of her passing, and for the grieving I know her family is going through (it's never easy to let go), but I'm so glad she was in my life. May the Lord comfort you as you grieve and let you settle into wonderful memories.
