“ I so remember Jeff from teaching at Balyki years ago. He was always so full of energy and nothing held him back. He had a hint of an 'imp' in him which made him so fun to teach. I remember one year before school he and some older boys were 'wrestling' before school and boy oh boy, Jeff got his leg broken. but that never stopped him. he was always eager to question and know why. I am so sorry to hear this and also sorry to learn he lived in Indianapolis because I live in Bloomington, IN, just 45 miles away and go to Indy frequently. I would have loved to have reconnected with him for some chats. He was fun loving and I did enjoy him a great deal. My heart goes out to Jeff's family and friends. Jeff was one of a kind and I am delighted that I had the chance to know him so many years ago. He was a gem.

“ For several years when they were kids, Jeff , Kim and my girls , between motorcycles, three wheelers and horses, kept that half a quarter mile of dirt road between our two houses busy... They had trails in the timbers, back roads to Kate and Noah's and Lanes vacation farm where they swam a lot...Once Jeff tied Kim, and my girls hands above their heads in the barn rafters... No big deal but he got on his motorcycle and went home... Thankfully, with that bunch, I checked on them from time to time and found them....a new adventure every day! I would love to live it all again...I will miss you Jeff..You was a rare bird!!!

“ I spent more time with you than I can begin to explain. Including working for you for a year and a half. You showed me what it was like to dream big and made me a better person by pushing me beyond my limits. We didn't talk as much as we should have over the last few years but nonetheless I will miss you everyday. You're the one that got me involved with heavy equipment and helped me grow my passion for this business and Caterpillar. CAT lost a loyal customer and the world lost a great man.

I love you so much man!

I was always happy to see this guy because he made me smile. We had a lot of laughs together. He was a "make it happen" kind of guy and very positive. We had many long talks over the years. He always treated me with respect and looked out for my best interest. It is so sad to me that his life ended the way it has. I had only seen Jeff a handful of times over the last 5 years, but I did see him just a couple of weeks ago at Lowes. I was shocked at how his health had declined. He was buying 2x4's for some project he had going. (Imagine that!) Just knowing he's not with us anymore makes me very sad. He was still calling me Pammie.....
