“ Jennie was a very kind an caring person with a big heart. She helped care for my mother, Allegra Tinsley, in her home and visited her nearly every day in the nursing home. And to the family having lost both your parents so close together, we send you our deepest sympathy. There were both very special people.

“ Our hearts are sad with the passing of your mom Jenny. She was such a wonderful neighbor for 38 years. We will miss your mom and dad dearly . We always talked when either saw each other outside or stopped for a short visit .. Keeping your whole family in our prayers now and in coming days . We feel your heartache. In Christian love Mark and Barbara.
