Surviving are his mom, Donna Johnson of Green Valley; two brothers, William Jr. and Austin Johnson, both of Green Valley; one sister that he adored, Julie (Justin Scroggs) Williams; two nieces, Aireonna (Devin Davis) Williams and Kayleigh Whitney, all of Pekin; six nephews, Joel, Gabe (Anna), Keagan Williams, William (Aly) Callaway and Bentley Scroggs, all of Pekin, and Garrett Johnson of Wisconsin; five uncles, Randy, Del, Garry, Rick, and Keith; eight aunts, Pammie Sue, Debbie, Connie, Iva, Sandy, Rita, Karen, and Pat; 43 plus cousins; and 54 plus second cousins. Jeremiah graduated from Pekin Community High School in 2009. He worked at McDonald's in Pekin with the help of a work aide until his autism made work too hard for him.

Jeremiah was so full of life. He loved to play his Playstation and watch animated shows and movies with his oldest brother, Bill. He had the biggest heart and loved to show his love to everyone! He didn't have to know you to be able to make you smile by the end of your conversation. He loved being an uncle and telling everyone about his nieces and nephews every chance he could. He would always talk to you about his video games and shows. He has a very large family and loved to tell everyone just how big his family is. He always had a smile on his face and was just a happy soul.

“ Words can not express the pain I'm feeling right now...my "little big" brother passed away... I'm hurting so bad... as a baby he was with me every minute of every day... I swear he was joined to my hip... he was my little buddy and was the kindest boy to everyone!! Watching a Autistic little baby flourish and grow into the man he was has been a true joy in life his smile, his laughs, his stories about any and every animated show or movie is what made him so special... I hope your up there with Daddy "Bull Frog" and know that "sis" loves you today tomorrow and forever... you will forever be missed!!! R.I.P.
