“ So sorry to the Burke family. Jesse was a good friend. We did a lot of hanging out and riding together. We laughed together a lot. He will definitely be missed. Sincerely, Bob Chaffee

“ I remember the night Jen Jen brought Jesse over to meet me and the way he just talked and talked and talked. And I thought.... I like him (with a sigh of relief) ... Jen finally found a good man... one who will love her beyond measure and make her happy to the end of her days. Tragically,life doesn't always deal us the hand we want or more importantly that we deserve . But for all those who loved Jesse, it is a dark time indeed. Many will wonder if the sun will every shine for them again and if it does, will it shine the same? I wondered what I would say when I sat down to write this. There are just no words to express the gut wrenching sorrow I feel for Jesse, his children and his beautiful wife, Jenifer. Jesse will be so very missed by all who loved him.... Prayers of sympathy and healing to all of you who are hurting right now and my absolute deepest hopes that the sun does come out for all of you again with the brightness of Jessie's smile and the vigor of his laughter bursting out in a quiet room. I love you Jen Jen... I would bear this pain for you if it was in my power to do so.
