“ So sorry to read of JoAnne's death. I have so many fond memories of Women's Fellowship meetings, and singing in the choir with her. And her baking! Those orange cookies she baked the evening Bill and I were there so he could work on the computer were absolutely divine. May she rest in peace and rise in glory.

“ JoAnne was the best Sunday School teacher you could ever hope for! Her wonderful class is the reason that I joined UPC so many years ago. She always went way beyond the lesson in the book to make each week extra meaningful! Christmas parties and summer cook-outs kept us all looking forward to class each year. She was such a warm and welcoming lady! I will miss her greatly!!

“ Thank you Mom for introducing me to all that there is on this earth, raising me in the church and showing me what family is all about. Thank you for coming to all my shows, meeting all my friends, following me from state to state and welcoming me back home each time I came back. Thank you for instilling in me a sense of style and social commitment. Thank you for the unconditional love.

"I am grateful, from the bottom of my heart that I have shared 'your life', and I trust that someday my happiness, as I remember our life together, will far outweigh the grief I feel now." (M. Hickman)
