“ I have many memories of J.D. but there are two that are the most vivid and touching memories. Those are the days after his daughter Tiffany and his son Travis were born. I remember both of those days very distinctly. I went to visit my cousin after she gave birth to Tiffany first and Travis a year or so later. He held each one of them with pride, love, and a huge smile on his face. He was so happy, caring and gentle. He was a great father to both of them. It was a sight to see that sparkle in his eyes when he held them. God bless you J.D. may you find blessings, peace, and happiness in your final resting place.
