“ So sorry to hear of the loss of Chris. I first met him about 25 years ago in the corn fields near Ipava, then had some EDL classes with him at WIU. I just spoke to him a couple weeks ago for several minutes, and he was engaging as always. He was always in a good mood, joking, and willing to listen. You could tell in conversations he loved his family and his students. The field of education and the Havana school district lost a great educator and leader. Condolences to his family, friends, and students.

Too many memories, Lake of the Ozarks, his wedding to Laura, and this past summer, his daughter Sam's wedding. He and his son Jeff were the best of buddies. Hunting, fishing, etc. Hugs to you all, and cherish the memories. There are many.*

Words are so inadequate at a time like this. I did not know Chris but have known many Dunkers and Brooks and know what a giant hole will be left in your hearts and family with such a sudden unexpected tragedy of the loss of such a good man. Shirley and my thoughts are with you and the family, and we extend those condolences in hopes of helping at this time of grief and sorrow. Dwell on the many memories you have of the good times shared with Chris, family and friends. From the other comments about his positive impact on several communities, speaks volumes about him and the high quality of his love for others. RIP Chris, your journey through life, though shorter than desired, left a legacy of love and help for your fellow man.*

“ There are no words to explain the respect I have for this man. He watched as my two boys grew into fine young men, and my youngest two from birth to teens. My friend for nearly 20 years and my boss for over 9. We didn't have a boss / employee relationship but so much more. Strong when need be, but could laugh, oh could he laugh. So many memories... Calling to check on Logan after surgery, calling to check when I was literally out of my head with the flu... always making sure we knew he was there for us. Teasing me that if I couldn't make it the block to work he'd be glad to pick me up... scolding me when our Halloween decorations startled him on more than one occasion. The talent show where I choked on newspaper and fell into Chris, almost causing a domino effect. The joke about the "candy" never left the office, the laugh when he knew I had climbed up backward out of a slide so he wouldn't see me on video flying out on my head... I could go on and on. The family, my heart breaks for each of you. Laura, my friend, a void that can't be filled... Sam and Jeff, your Father was so very proud of you both ! John and Bonnie... two of the sweetest people, could only raise a man like this. The faculty of New Central, whom I still call my family, my thoughts and prayers are with you all as you look into the innocent faces who now are without their Mr. Dunker. When i made the decision to seek employment outside of the District, he told me that it was one of the hardest things he ever did, writing my reference letter. The letter itself is priceless to me now. When he would see me , he would always ask how I was, how the job was, etc. He was genuine, caring, ornery, admirable and so much more. I am still having trouble facing the reality that your life on Earth has ended, but I take comfort in knowing I will see you again. As my tears begin to fall again, I feel so lucky and so blessed to have had you in my life for so many years. You were loved Dunk, so very loved and will be missed more than you could have ever imagined. Hugs, love and prayers to you all.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one, Chris. It breaks our hearts when death separates us from the ones we love so much, especially when they are as young as Chris. The Bible reminds us that God sees our pain and sadness and has promised that soon death will be swallowed up forever. (Isaiah 25:8). HE will heal our broken hearts by resurrecting our loved ones to life again (John 6:40). I hope your beautiful memories of Chris and these promises from God comfort you in the days to come.

You have touched many souls over the years making forever lasting impressions. Mine favorite memory is gonna be your guys senior year and the 1985 Huskies basketball team. You graduated with my brother and were friends. You guys were celebrities to us younger classmates. I was in 8th grade when you guys fought your way to state. I will never forget the energy that was going through that whole town inspired by all of you guys talents on the floor that year and most all of you were so humble when we surrounded you in "awe". Chris especially. You were still that person as an adult. A quality most can not keep through life. RIP Chris "Dunk" "Dunker. Mike and Tara Tracy*

“Dunker Tribe...

I'm INSPIRED by your very tight family. Two things:

Coach Sullivan brought Chris to me when I was a hurdler to help tutor me...during Chris' senior year and the next year. There was no "too good to do something" with your husband, Dad, son and brother. He was just the coolest guy to me when he didn't have to be. That may sound like a platitude, but those reading this know I'm spot-on. I was four years younger than Chris but the way he treated me left a permanent mark.

Next, my FAVORITE basketball team of ALL time - pro, college, teams I played with or whatever...was Chris' senior year, that loaded 1984-85 MC Huskies MACHINE. What made it hysterically fun was rooting for the subs and for those cats (I mean, Huskies) to hit the century mark on the scoreboard. Those final 5 off the bench would have been AT LEAST a .500 team, and that's one of the reasons those Huskies were so good. Chris was one of the guys off the bench, and we rooted just as hard for those guys...heck, maybe even more so. It was incredibly exciting and the most fun I've ever had in a gym. Thanks for the LIFETIME memories, Huskies, and thank you CHRIS for being such a genuine, genuine heart-rooted guy.

Millie, Steve, John, Bonnie, Laura, Sam and Jeff...God bless you fantastic people. Always.

“I will always remember in conversation with Chris how much he must have loved his family. Bonnie, John and Laura's names were always in some way at the center of who he was. A true life lesson for all of us! And aside from Brad Beenders, Chris had the boniest, most razor-like sharp elbows of any MC Huskie to ever proudly put on the pinstripes. You never wanted to be near him after a strong rebound unless of course you were a Havana Duck and then it was ok. To the entire family so very sorry for your loss. Bruce Miller

Laura and family so sorry for your loss. Mr. Dunker was a wonderful Principle. I watched him be very strict in correcting children but he never let them leave the office without pointing out there good points. That is what made him such a special man. You all are in my prayers.

I can't express in words how much I appreciated him taking me hunting and fishing. We both had a great love for the outdoors and developed a true friendship.

“ Laura,
"Dunk" was a great man. My children attended his classes at the junior high and their children attend New Central. My whole family has had him in our life for the 27 years he has taught and been principal. Chris was always understanding and willing to help anyone. I interviewed with him for a reading para back about 8 years ago. He asked me what I plan on doing in 10 years! My answer "Sitting in the sun on a beach somewhere!" We laughed and he said "that's not what I wanted to hear but it sounds good to me!" and you know his smile when he is trying not to laugh ...of, course I didn't get the job because he wanted someone who was going to last longer than that. You know you and the kids are in our prayers and if there is anything I can do for you...please call. We love you all.

Sincerely,
The Tylers

“ Our thoughts and prayers to Laura, Sam and Jeff and the rest of the family. Mr. Dunker will forever be remembered by so many people that he was such a role model for. He always had a smile for each child that walked into the grade school and always waved at them making them feel important and making school a fun place to be. He was a wonderful caring man and always made you smile or wave when you saw him. Heaven gained an angel and a role model for all.

“ Chris and I taught and coached together for several years at Havana Jr. High. We both learned a lot from each other. He was one of a kind, and I mean that in the most positive way. Mentor, husband, father, son, friend. He was at the top of the list in all those categories. It is gut wrenching to realize that I will never get to sit down and shoot the breeze with him again. He was extremely proud of his children and rightfully so. The ultimate family man. Chris was the epitome of the word role model for kids. He was a terrific influence on my own sons, Zach and Zane. As a coach he loved his players and they would run through a brick wall for him if he asked them to. And he was a friend who would be there any time of day or night if asked for help. To say he will be missed is possibly the biggest understatement I could ever make. RIP Dunk. And to John, Bonnie, Laura, Sam, and Jeff, my sincere condolences.
